“Extremely valuable. It really hit the mark for us. As a very large and complex company, we are not short on ideas, but the challenge comes in executing across a diverse business. We came away with new insights and actionable ideas for us to implement. Thanks for a great experience!”

Donna Middleton; Regional Manager, Barclaycard

“Your presentation was insightful and thought provoking. Your informal, yet professional style kept the audience interested and attentive. You have the ability to hold the interest of everyone, whatever their age, background or experience.”

David Blacklock; Chief Executive, People First

“Great experience, eye-opening, insightful, entertaining and enormously beneficial. The difference that this has made to our business has been enormous. Thank you.”

Farooq Mohamed; Business Development Director, The Kier Group
